

Acknowledgement

The Domoszlay & Coleman Family thanks you for your smile, your wisdom, your thoughtfulness, your friendship, your laugh, your generosity, your devotion but most of all, for you're never ending love and support.

*God needed an angel in Heaven
To stand at the Savior's feet;
His choice must be the rarest
A lily pure and sweet
He gazed upon the mighty throng
Then stopped and picked the best,
Our mother was His chosen one
With Jesus she's now at rest.*

Obituary

Ellen Domoszlay, age 86, died at home in Decatur, Alabama on Monday, January 9, 2012.

Born January 9, 1926 in Monchengladbach, Germany she lived in Montreal, Canada, Toronto, Canada before settling in No. Hollywood, California. Her profession was a tailor but most of all she was a devoted mother who appreciated her children & grandchildren's strengths and talents, doing everything to foster their growth and provide them the best opportunities.

Survivors include her sister, Wera Buchaly, of Monchengladbach, Germany, her son & daughter-in-law Ralph – Kate Domoszlay, of Duvall Washington, her daughter Elke Coleman, of Decatur, Alabama, her grandchildren Forrest, Nick, Chris, Shawn & Erika, and her great-grandchild Kai.

January 9, from birth to death, my Grandmother lived 86 years and with God she left. Peace at heart, peace in mind, my beautiful Grandma is resting in peace now, with God entwined. I Love You Grandma, RIP

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around you and whispered "come to me." With tearful eyes I watched you, and saw you pass away. Although I loved you dearly, I could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest. God broke my heart to prove to me, He only takes the best.

Mami, Rest in Peace!
