Obituary

Dolores Cloteer Payne Rochon

Dolores Cloteer Payne was born in Athens, Alabama, on December 22, 1928, the eldest of two children born to Earle and Bollie Payne, Sr. She attended the local elementary school and Trinity High School, graduating in 1947. Dolores attended Dillard University in New Orleans, Louisiana, and she went on to further her educational pursuits by attending St. Mary's Infirmary School of Nursing in St. Louis, Missouri, graduating in 1956. She continued to live and work in the St. Louis area hospitals, where she made many lifelong friends. It was there Dolores met, and later married Lonnie Rochon, a local disc jockey in April 1961. She became a stepmother to his children from a previous marriage, Rhonda and Roy. Later that year, with the promise of new opportunities, the newlyweds traveled west to Los Angeles, CA.

Dolores quickly secured employment as a registered nurse at California Hospital Medical Center. From there, she became Director of Nursing at Culver West Convalescent Hospital, and retired from Centinela Hospital in 1993.

Dolores and Lonnie's marriage blessed them with three children: David Linton, Annette Marie and Robert Anthony.

Dolores was an avid sportswoman, having grown up hunting and fishing in the country. The family enjoyed many camping and fishing trips, from Yosemite National Park to Baja, Mexico. She took great pride in her garden, harvesting and sharing the many fruits and vegetables she planted every year. Dolores' most recent interest had been in computers, finding it challenging at first, but determined to learn. She enjoyed keeping in touch with distant friends and family, and her latest toy was a webcam, which she used to video chat with her grandchildren.

Dolores was called home on February 9, 2012. Lonnie preceded her in death on April 18, 1989. Dolores' memory is cherished by her children, David, Annette, Robert (Jill); two stepchildren Rhonda Cotton and Dr. Roy Rochon; a brother Bollie Jr.; two sisters-in-law Anna Sonnier and Betty Jean LaGrange; four granddaughters, Amber, Raquel, Olivia and Loni and numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.
