Sunset and evening Star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning at the bar
When I put out to sea.
But such a tide as moving seems Asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
when that which drew from out the boundless deep,
Turn again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.
For though from out our bourne of
Time and Place,
The Flood May bear me for,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have Crossed the bar.
