OBSEQUES

On the evening of December 20, 1986, Deacon Daniel Harris departed this life.

He was the son of the late Mr. William and Mrs. Elvira Davis Harris. He was born August 22, 1901 in Limestone County where he lived all his life. He confessed hope in CHrist as a young man under the pastorate of Elder M. C. Cosby and was united in fellowship with the New Hopewell M. B. Church and some years later he transferred his membership to Phillips Tabernacle P. B. Church under the pastorate of Elder James Townsend where he served as deacon for 37 years until his health declined.

He was married to the late Mrs. Sophia Harris. To this union five children were born, of which one preceded him in death. Later he was married to the late Mrs. Henrieretta Leslie Harris. He is survived by two sons, Mr. Roosevelt Harris, Indianapolis, Ind., Mr. Franklin Harris, Madison, AL; one step son, Mr. Theodore Leslie, Huntsville, AL; two daughters, Mrs. Elvira Sledge, Athens, AL, Mrs. Beauty McColley, Tanner, AL; one step daughter, Mrs. Mildred Parrish; one brother, Mrs. Shelby Harris, Cleveland, Ohio; two daughters-in-law, and one son-in-law, 25 grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Sunset and evening star, and one clear call for me!

And may there be on moaning at the bar

When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,

Too full for sound and foam,

When that which drew from out the boundless deep

Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell, and after that the dark!

And may there be no sadness of farewell—

When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of time and place

The flood may bear me far.

I hope to see my pilot face to face.

When I have crossed the bar.

A-Men.
