

Aug 19, 1920

Monday.

Dear Dad:-

I am writing you to answer all them air questions categorically (X). Job work is very good indeed, we are turning out some good work. Notice sample. Reavis says we are two weeks behind on it. I have seen Ed Gilbert. Can't sell now but I believe we can this Fall, as the roads are improving, and I hope money will loosen up a bit. I mailed you a letter relative to the B & S building. Capt. Jack says wait till you get home. He seems quite helpless N. of shoulders so far as rentals are concerned. Real estate is not very active now, but I've heard that it is expected to pick up soon. Joe Sarver was offered $70 for the Moore place. He will sell at $72.50 I believe. Do you O.K. that? Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde couldn't go wrong in this town unless they had awfully common taste regarding evil. Bob Henry is getting along very well, but the malarial fever still hangs on. Mrs. Leo Warten raided Pope Biles, Toney, et al, in a poker session on her unexpected return from Elkmont Springs. Some talk of Grand Jury indictments. Burglaries are numerous here as thieves broke in Rosenau's, Jaffe's and Bowen and Johnson's two successive nights. This is all the news I know but will write again soon.

Son,

B. E. L.