Obituary

"God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb; He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered,

"Peace Be Thine."

Without warning death plucked a flower from the garden on April 3rd and Sister Pointer was called from earth to heaven's reward. She was born on June 28, 1949 to the late Mrs. Eliza A. Watkins.

Flora confessed hope in Christ at an early age, was baptized and become a member of Sweet Home Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Mavon Cosby.

In a quiet Christian manner, she demonstrated her talents in singing in the choir, serving as an Usher, attending Sunday School and Bible Study, and working in the Church Kitchen. Flora was always on the alert as to how she could help, comfort and cheer someone who may be more in need than herself. Because of her loving spirit, her life was full, rich and happy and now she is at peace praising God's name.

Flora was preceded in death by her mother, Eliza A. Pointer Watkins and her son, Tim A. Pointer.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sisters, Patricia A. Watkins and Yvonne Watkins, both of Athens, AL; six brothers, Napoleon H. (Sammie) Pointer and Charles D. (Tammie) Pointer of Nashville, TN, Willie Pointer, Eddie D. (ShaQuana) Watkins, Jerome (Joyce) Watkins and Minister Milton A. Watkins, all of Athens, AL; two special aunts, Lola Clancy and Carrie Griffin, both of Decatur, AL; three uncles, Isaac (Cerissa) Lockett and James B. Lockett, all of Decatur, AL, and Oscar (Mary) Pointer of Nashville, TN; one special cousin, Julia Fisher, special friends, Ms. Marva Webb, Mrs. Della Darby, Mrs. Margaret Smith, Ms. Sharon Woods, Ms. Ella Malone and Mrs. Ollye M. Ward; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.
