

STATE OF ALABAMA
HIGHWAY PATROL
MONTGOMERY

March 4, 1937

Hon. R. H. Walker
Athens, Alabama

Dear Sir:

Your letter of March 3 recommending Mr. Elkins of Decatur for a place on the Highway Patrol received. At this time I have no vacancies but will be glad to speak to the Governor in Mr. Elkins' behalf.

I sincerely hope that you are now back in good health. I am enclosing you a clipping--editorial in Tuesday's Advertiser--which might interest you. It is hard to say how any other County will go except Mobile and Montgomery.

Yours truly,

Walter K. McAdory
Walter K. McAdory, Chief
Alabama Highway Patrol

MAY WE KID A LITTLE?

Our old and esteemed friend, Judge Leon McCord, must have felt strangely at home in the Dexter Avenue Methodist Church where he made a Public Address last night.

The Poor Mountain Boy's sentimental attachment to the Dexter Avenue church is strong and genuine, for it is that noble institution that first made "Lennie" a hero in Alabama politics, as all who can remember the earth-shaking prohibition campaign of 1909 will attest.
