Obituary

Order of Services

BROTHER GEORGIE D. MOORE, better known as "Joe," was born on March 10, 1911 in Limestone County, Alabama. He was the fourth of ten children born to the late Mr. John S. and Mrs. Tera Della (Jones) Moore. His sister, Ms. Edna Lorine Moore, and his brothers, Mr. Lifford "Bell," Mr. David D. "Shine," and Mr. Charlie Mason Moore, all preceded him in death.

He met and married his wife, Mrs. Lucille Moore, in Birmingham, Alabama, and later moved to Rockford, Illinois. After her death in 1985, Mr. Moore moved back to Athens, Alabama to live out his remaining years with his sister and family.

He accepted Christ as his personal Savior and was baptized on August 4, 1985. He joined the Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church under the pastorage of Rev. Willie James Mangruen. He was a faithful member of both the No. One and Mass Choirs. He quietly departed this life on Friday, December 25, 1992.

He will be remembered and cherished by his daughter, Ms. Willa M. Huggard; one granddaughter, Ms. Rhonda Huggard; four grandsons, Masters Robert, Raymond, Russell and Roger Huggard; seven great-grandchildren, all of Rockford, Illinois; four sisters, Ms. Jimmie L. Moore of Decatur, Alabama, Mrs. Beatrice Jennings of Nashville, Tennessee, Mrs. Lenora Stinnett of Athens, Alabama, and Mrs. Lucille Horton of Gary, Indiana; one brother, Mr. John R. Moore of Athens, Alabama; many other close relatives and friends.
