

Don't let Sarah
know / make you
the little. I became don't think I she would like me at mentioning
her name. I.

Don't let Sarah
know / make you
the little. I became
don't think I she would
like me at mentioning
her name. I.

Don't let Sarah
know / make you
the little. I became
don't think I she would
like me at mentioning
her name. I.

trick and merric, "let-it-all-go, forget-it; - there are too few of us left; - & make each other unhappy, and I feel we should be closer as the years pass, for I know there are not so many years ahead of us, so let's try & appreciate what is good in the each of us. I am very far away from the ones I love, & live very much alone, but have quite a bit & make me happy. and always try to be cheerful.
Trust you received the little book of Will Rogers, I knew have & given a lot; believe it - would have been better not - & lock it - all in your head - instead of letting me help out - a bit; ~~at~~ with a little sympathy at least. I watch every thing I see in the papers, and your political rise has been most interesting and makes me very proud of you. Ada has written me about that down home and apartment, Ted &c. until I have been so repeated when I want to let it off in your chest, when it is filled & overflowing of your own how you admired him, / was crazy about him and have the same little book in my toke.

Took dinner with Lou. & Marnie last Sunday, wish you could see their home, it is most attractive and comfortable, their dining room is lovely, am quite crazy for their place, & they seem so happy now, if you know are so interested in his career and believe he will go far, if he is careful and does not waste his strength, for newspaper work is very wearracking, he looks better than in a long time, Marnie is all right and a fine girl. Tell Henry will answer her letter soon.
Lots of love and good wishes for you, and yours. M. J. -