

WALKER & MARTIN
GROCERIES, HARDWARE,
AND FIELD SEED

ATHENS, ALA., Sept. 17 - 1917

Dear Jan: Your money letters read, and received how answered some of them some but have had now to carry over and have been hoping that I would be able to send some money and would put off writing on this account.
I noted what you said about a business proposition, etc and would it help but somehow we cannot stand, strictly on that basis.
You failed to state how named you want Judge Mason and when it was done you will let me know by return mail, I'll try and

WALKER & MARTIN
GROCERIES, HARDWARE,

ATHENS, ALA.,

Make some arrangement to see it - Don't know just how it will be done but guess I'll find some way -

Baby John left last night for St. Louis to begin teaching, even before my niece to see her leave, knows she will get awfully home-sick but think she will like the place all right -

I am sending you a statement of what I have charged to you on back of this sheet.
I have charged to you on back of this sheet
last some of my checks and don't know whether there is any more or not. Hope you are getting along all right and enjoying good health - Yours truly,
J. M. Walker
