Obituary

On the morning of May 7, 1977 at 9:45 A.M. the angel of silence came into the home of her late parents, Will and Ola Hargrove, of Louisville, Ky., with chilly fingers sealed the lips of Sister Ella Will Malone, a loving mother and a devoted wife. Her soul winged its flight from this world of sin, sorrow and pain, to a place of eternal rest.

There are some lives that disappoint us, some impressions of character which we have to revise in later years, but the impression that was formed of Sister Ella Will Malone when you first met her remained unchanged to the end of her life.

She became a christian when quite a young lady and joined the New Bera Church, and was baptized by the pastor, Rev. Beaty. Later she moved her membership to the Sampson Chapel C.M.E. Church for the convenience of her husband and her children, and spent more than forty five years in the masters service. She gave freely of her time, her counsel and her money and was always willing to do anything that she felt would help for good, in any way. She was not selfish, hence she felt that she needed someone, to go by her side and enjoy whatever she might accumulate in life, so December 27, 1927 she married Rev. F. M. Malone, to this union Ten children were born, one whom preceeded her in death, and she reared her eldest grandson. To her family she was loving and faithful, and strive to make them comfortable and happy. She taught her children to be God-fearing and God-loving and that to be christians was one of the greatest things in life, and to know her children, you will find that they have ever remembered her teachings.

She leaves to cherish her memories a devoted husband, Rev. F. M. Malone of Athens, Ala., nine childrens, Mrs. Ola Anderson, Mrs. Sylvia Kelly, Mr. Farmer Malone, Jr., Mr. Roy Malone and Mr. Willie Mack Malone all of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Bertha Pipes of Los Angeles, C.A., Miss Juanita Malone of Chicago, Ill., Miss Addie Malone, Mrs. Geneva Benford and Mr. Donnie M.
