

MISS ME – BUT LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little – but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me – but let me go.*

*For this Journey that we all must
Take and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the hills we know
And bury your sorrow among the trees
Miss me – but let me go.*

OBITUARY

Mr. Roosevelt Harris, Sr., was the oldest of five children born to the union of the late Dan Harris and Sophia Harris, in Limestone County, Alabama.

Mr. Harris was united in Holy Matrimony to Fronie Kelly.

He was employed at Indiana Asphalt as a driver. After his retirement, he became a self employed lawn care specialist.

Mr. Harris enjoyed fishing but he loved bowling and was an avid bowler.

He was preceded in death by one sister; Emma Jane Burrell.

After suffering a long illness, Mr. Roosevelt Harris, Sr., departed this life on June 23, 1998, at the age of seventy-one years old.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife; Fronie Harris, of Cleveland, Ohio, daughters; Leslie Williamson, Yvonne Harris, and JoAnne (Isaac) Harris-Twyman, all of Cleveland, Ohio, one son; Roosevelt (JoAnne) Harris, Jr., of Cleveland, Ohio, seven grandchildren, thirteen great grandchildren, two sisters; Elvira Harris-Sledge, of Athens, Alabama, and Beauty Harris-McCalley, of Tanner, Alabama, one brother; Frank Harris, of Madison, Ohio, a host of other relatives, a very special friend, Rosella Davidson, and many other friends.
