

THE OBITUARY

Katherine C. Howell-Redus was born the seventh child of the late William and Annie (Lockhart) Howell on July 7, 1915 in Athens, Alabama.

She was introduced to Christ at an early age, and became a member of Village View United Methodist Church.

On May 6, 1943, she married the late Andrew Redus at the home of her parents in Athens. They moved to Detroit, Michigan, where she worked at Henry Ford Hospital until her retirement. She was involved in community and church activities in Detroit.

Katherine joined the Second Grace United Methodist Church in 1950 where she took on a number of duties and remained a faithful member until she moved back to Athens in 2001 after her husband's death. Upon moving back to Athens she rejoined Village View United Methodist Church and remained a faithful member until her health started failing her in April, 2010.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, and eleven of her twelve siblings.

She is survived by her loving brother, Nelson Howell, Athens, AL; four nephews: Larry (Lula) Howell and Robert Earl Malone of Athens, AL, Donald (Vera) Howell of Belleville, MI, Ronald (Brenda) Howell of Las Vegas, NV. Niece: Faye (Sebrone) Ingram of Montgomery, AL. Special friends: Rhonda Weaver, Nancy Conway, and Teresa Livingston. A host of other relatives and friends.

“Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life:
he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.”

John 11: 25-26

God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped his arms around you,
And whispered, "come to me."

You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.

And when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again.
