Obituary

BOOKER T. MURRAY, son of the late John and Alice Murray, was born April 11, 1919 in Elkmont, Alabama.

He served in the U.S. Army during World War II and after his discharge, made his home in New York City until about six months ago, when he moved to St. Petersburg, Florida, where he passed away Wednesday, October 1, 1980.

He is survived by his wife, Ruby of St. Petersburg, Florida; his son, Harold of New York; a step-son, Bobby Fields of New York; three brothers, Leroy of Cincinnati, Ohio, Sam and James Mack of Athens; one sister, Mrs. Rosie Nell Gibson of Little Rock, Arkansas; two aunts, Mrs. Dora Horton, Athens, and Mrs. Luella Wise, Little Rock, Arkansas; a step-daughter-in-law, three sisters-in-law, many nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

*There is never a day so dark and dreary
But God can make it bright.*

*There is never a night so black and void
But God can send His light.*

*So take to Him those hopeless things
That are tearing at your life . . .
The heart that puts its trust in God
Finds help to meet the strife.*
