

Flower Bearers

+
NIECES

Pall Bearers

+
Mr. Richard Davis, Jr.
Mr. Larry Davis
Mr. Harry Gisby
Mr. Richard Davis, Sr.
Mr. Joe H. Davis
Mr. Rubean Grisby

+

The family acknowledges with grateful appreciation all acts of sympathy extended to them during their hours of sadness. May God bless and keep each of you.

+

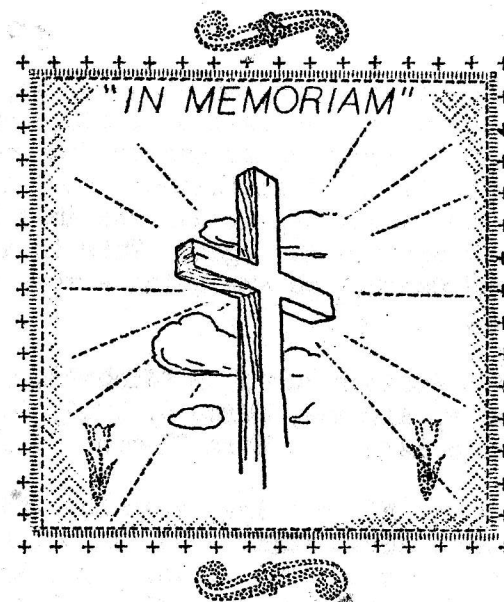

Funeral Directors in Charge
MASON'S FUNERAL HOME - ATHENS, ALABAMA

FUNERAL SERVICES

+
OF THE LATE

M R . J I M M Y P A R I S

THURSDAY, JULY 30, 1970 AT ONE O'CLOCK P. M.

Mount Zion Cumberland Presbyterian Church
Mooreville, Alabama
The Reverend Willis Fletcher - Officiating

MASON'S FUNERAL HOME - Directing

THE OBITUARY

+

On occasions like this in which we are now engaged, one is often called upon to render active service; when the feeling would imply silence rather than call for the words. In this spirit, we approach this duty at this hour.

We have come together today, as we often do, from our various occupations at the call of Death - an event that is constantly occurring around us; and within the ranges of our families, acquaintances and Church members. As we look about us, we can see that Death strikes all - young and the aged. This is a world of sin, sorrow and death. We are going - yes, we are going one by one.

MR. JIMMY PARIS (better known as "Jimbo"), was born in Limestone County, Alabama, March 5, 1919, to Elder Harry Paris and the late Miss Nora Clemons Paris.

He leaves to mourn his passing, a loving father; and ~~Stepmother~~ - Mrs. Addie Paris - of Athens, Alabama; a son, Mr. Grady Paris of Louisville, Kentucky; three grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Elnora Pitts of Huntsville, Alabama, and Mrs. Dacia Lee Pitts of Kirkwood, Missouri; six nieces; four nephews; a host of great ~~nieces~~ and nephews and friends.

"Death is just a halting-place between two Eternities - a gentle wafting to Immortal Life."

ORDER OF SERVICE

+

Processional.....Selected Music by the Pianist
Selection.....The Choir
The Scripture Lesson.....Reverend Willis Fletcher
Song and Prayer.....Elder Robert Harris
Song.....The Choir
Acknowledgments.....Sister Louise Garth
The Obituary.....Sister Louise Garth
Song.....The Choir

THE EULOGY

REVEREND WILLIS FLETCHER

Solo.....Sister Rainey Malone
Recessional.....Selected Music by the Pianist

INTERMENT:

New Hope Cemetery