Obituary

Deacon Horace Langford, Sr. "Baddy"

Deacon Horace Langford, Sr. was born January 10, 1904 in Limestone County, Alabama to the late Billy and Annie Langford. He departed this life on Sunday, January 21, 1996 at his home in Greenbrier, Alabama.

He was joined in holy matrimony on December 1925 to the late Mrs. Louvenia Fletcher Langford.

He confessed hope in Christ in 1957 and joined Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend W. E. Owes. He was the oldest deacon of the church serving for more than 30 years. Helped organized the Young Adult Choir.

He was a member of the Mount Zion Lodge #30 where he served faithfully until his health failed.

Deacon Horace Langford Sr., leaves to cherish his memory four daughters, Nina Betts of Greenbrier, Alabama, Irene Langford, Huntsville, Alabama, Mary Williams, Belle Mina, Alabama and Bettye Bush (Eddie), Huntsville, Alabama; two sons, Horace Langford, Jr., Chattanooga, Tennessee and Robert Langford, Cleveland, Ohio; two daughters he reared as his own, Geneva Williams and Mattie Vance (Willie Ray) both of Athens, Alabama; one daughter preceded him in death, Mrs. Ethel Malone; one daughter-in-law that he loved very much Mrs. Burnestine Langford, Chattanooga, Tennessee; forty-five (45) grandchildren, sixty-five (65) great grandchildren, ten (10) great great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and well wishers.
