

EDW. GOODRICH
ATTORNEY AT LAW
ATHENS, ALABAMA

May 8th, 1935.

Mr. R.H. Walker,
State Capitol,
Montgomery, Alabama.

Dear Harry:

I wish you would get Rosavelt Fletchers temporary parole extended, or, if you have an opportunity, get him a permanent parole. His temporary parole of thirty days expires at the end of this week. If you forget it, he will have to go back before you go down there again next week.

Sincerely yours,
Edward Goodrich.

E. Goodrich

EG:A