ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Realizing that each tomorrow is not ours to understand and knowing that God never hurts needlessly and never wastes our pain, for every loss He sends to us is followed by rich gains. Today in our loss, our hurt and pain, we recognize our gains in you our friends and loved ones for flowers, your cards, your whispered prayers and every deed of kindness that has been a source of strength and comfort.

GRATEFUL APPRECIATION

The family is eternally grateful to Dea. Mack Stovall of Willing Workers M. B. Church, Cleveland, Ohio.

OBITUARY

Issac Edward Robinson, Jr. was born April 2, 1930 in Athens, Alabama to the parentage of Issac (Ike) and Beulah Robinson. He was educated in the public schools of Athens-Limestone County. He confessed hope in Christ and joined the St. Luke M. B. Church at an early age. He made a commitment to the teachings of Jesus Christ and accepted the call to Preach the Gospel. His ministry led him to Chattanooga, TN, Decatur, AL and Cleveland, Ohio. He was a member of the Willing Workers M. B. Church under the leadership of Rev. Charlie Benford, and later to Avon Avenue Baptist Church, Rev. Frank Mickens, Pastor. He attended church there on Sunday morning and the Lord called him Monday.

He leaves to cherish his memories a stepmother, Mrs. Lottie Robinson, two sons, Ike III, and Phillip (Angie), Chattanooga, TN. Three daughters: Edith, Nashville, TN; Carolyn (Leon), Athens, AL; and J. Pamela, Denver, Colorado. Five grandchildren: Rochelle, Chanda, Cynthia, Chiquita, and Demetrius and five great grandchildren. Four brothers: Coy (Mary), Chattanooga, TN, Carnell (Geraldine), Joe (Odell), of Athens, AL, and Gregory (Carmen), Germany. One Uncle, Fred (Beatrice) Allen. Aunts: Florence McLin, Mabel Dailey and Lucy Robinson and a host of loving nephews, nieces, cousins and friends. His favorite scriptures came from the book of Psalms and he often preached from this book of the Bible.

POSTLUDE

God saw you were getting weary, So He did what He thought was best.
 He came and stood beside you and whispered "Come and Rest."

You bade no one a last farewell, not even a goodbye.

You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why!
