My Dear Harry! -

I am taking
a great liberty, in coming to you upon a
very delicate proposition, but I am
beyond knowing what to do or where to go -

James' bond has been reduced to $1500

$40,000 — of which has been secured — of it! Harry — would or could you help towards this balance $5,000 — You will notice I am still in Balls — not having gone to N. D. as was advised to wait until after the trial, which has not yet come up.

Harry in fact all over to Fairbanks I am
made to understand are opposed to think James is guilty of the full
sum used.

No one knows what I am suffering. my whole being heart and all is to be with James.
But — I felt — I had as well decide — I feel each day I am not that — that I cannot be of any use - still ok!

I try to see my position
now. My unfortunate
lot.

Don't feel a hesitancy in making us to this. I know it a great favor.

If you feel you can do anything. Write

rather get help. Then Harry told - me just as you feel about my asking such of you.

Pray for my child &
for me.

Always thank you for your great kindness if not long passed -

Very faithfully yours
