Acknowledgment

We are never quite prepared to face the departure of a loved one to eternal rest. At this most difficult time, it is gratifying to know that relatives and friends share our sorrow and have shown in so many ways that they care. Your prayers, calls, visits, cards, flowers, food, and other expressions of sympathy have been a great strength for us. Please continue to keep us in your prayers as we adjust our lives to this dear loss. God bless you all.

LOVE WILL NEVER DIE

*There is one thing that will never change
And that's love will never die.*

*As I sit here wiping the tears from my eyes,
Searching for answers, asking the Lord why?
I thought there would be more time, but you took her so suddenly
I never got the chance to say I love you or tell her how precious she was to me.*

*Trying to understand that her work here is done,
Praying for strength, I reflect back on the "Son".
He paid the ultimate price by giving His life
so we could have everlasting life.*

*It hurts so much to see you go
And I'll miss spending time with you while you watch your favorite show.
Please know that the joy you've given me, I hold deep inside and although I'm letting go, it's not goodbye.
Mother, Grandma, the love we have for you will never die.*

RECESSIONAL

*Don't spend too much time mourning,
Tears are for the sad;
I left to be with Jesus,
And this should make you glad.*

*Don't waste your hour in grieving,
No need to feel distress;
I'm tired of life's frustration,
And had to get some rest.*

*Life here for me has ended,
It came my time to leave;
Don't lose the love I gave you,
Feed it with your devotion,
And spread it everywhere.*

*Don't fret because my leaving,
It came in such a way;
We'll have another meeting,
In God's eternal day.*
