

Tuesday Evening—

My dear Harry!—

Nov. 14, 1822

I arrived
this morning at seven o'clock, after a rather tiresome journey— I hated to leave Papa, felt— I saw so little of him, we were in the go so much, Ber-rie & Ann met me at the train & kindly made me promise to take dinner with them, Annie was then the letter so full of her work also, Bessie, felt - I did not want to hear work very much but was really glad to see them, Larie had been sick so ran over & chat - her for a few minutes, Miss Dickie & Miss Eliza came in they were so sweet, and sympathetic, for they were devoted to Ryan, it is hard to think of life without him, he was always ready to untangle all trouble - I know how you will miss his counsel - I want to say here & you can file the letter, I will make you a present for your birthday of the interest on your work, my little bit - helps, and if my drop in the pocket can add to your peace of mind the pleasure is all mine,

I hate to think of you
being so worried over money matters, that makes me very unhappy, for when a man has been generous and good, seems a shame to have to worry over the hard things of life, I only pray & trust all will come not right, - keep your strength and nothing seem very bad, I told Ada that as long as she was due

the only $50⁰⁰ in the house
it, as I am $7/20$ & she
interest before John gave me $2/10$ now suppose you

limited knowledge of fractions but if Ric has $500⁰⁰ - trying the exchange how do I get $50⁰⁰? now don't think me small, but I am in the human world & hate to be so ignorant, Lots of love for you and Tommy & the two boys, am so sorry I did not see Robert Henry before I left, looked for him, but failed.

Now Henry, please remember you have a big burden to bear take care of yourself & do not try to do more than your strength allows, I do not believe I could stand to see any one of the rest go, God bless and keep you. Off. Len.
