~Obituary~

Mr. Quincy Lee Hicks was born Jan. 5, 1976 at Athens-Limestone Hospital to Ms. Elizabeth Ann Hicks and Mr. Roy Lee Bailey. He departed this life Monday, June 24, 2002, in Shelbyville, TN.

He confessed hope in Christ and joined the Oak Grove C.M.E. Church. He was a member of the Young Adult Dept., Usher Board, and Male Chorus.

Quincy loved everybody and never met a stranger. He loved being outside at all times. His favorite hobbies and greatest joy were riding horses and roping. As long as Quincy had a rope in his hand, he was happy.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his mother: Elizabeth Ann Hicks of Athens, AL; his father: Roy Lee Bailey of Athens, AL; four sisters: LaSonya Hicks of Cleveland, OH, Sauntia (Sandford) Cartwright, Cynthia (Billy) White, and LeAnn Bailey, all of Athens, AL; two grandmothers: Willie Hicks of Athens, AL, and Elnora Bailey of Elkmont, AL; two nephews: Dedrick Barnett of Athens, AL and Nicholas Schoby of Cleveland, OH; three nieces: Tiffany Bailey, Promise Bailey and Taylor White, all of Athens, AL; dear friends: Chloe and Logan White of Athens, TN and Christy Gill and Jamieon Stinnett of Athens, AL; his best-friends and roping partners Jai Reece and Jimmy Gilmore; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

I remember when we heard the words
and our minds went blank.

I'm sure a lot of us didn't know just what to think.
It has been hard enduring all this pain,
But through it all I know we should not complain.

Quincy being gone is so hard to understand,
But only God knows the plan.

He has gone where we all must go,
When our day shall come no one will ever know.

So to all the love ones that he leaves behind,
Let's keep his memories always on our minds.
He'll be missed dearly by everyone here at home,
But with him in our hearts we'll never be alone.

When life gets hard and seems too difficult to bear,
Just look to Jesus for we know he cares.
So to Uncle Lee, Elizabeth, and the rest of the family.

Just remember troubles don't last always,
For I'm a living witness there will be brighter days.
I know today we must say our final goodbye,
There will still be some of us wondering why?

Nothing could have prepared us for this day,
Because quite too soon he was taken away.

No farewell words were spoken, no time to say goodbye,
He was gone before we knew it, only God knows why.

No one will ever have a clue,
Just what it meant to me to lose you.
I know Quincy was loved by all,
Yet still he had to answer God's call

Love, Your Cousin
