

Montgomery,
Alabama,
April 9, 1917.

My dear grand-mother:

I received the darling little Easter Card and the little basket, and was delighted with both. I shall use the basket whenever I sew. I use the rubber apron that you gave me at Christmas often, when helping mother Sunday night. I can hardly wait until vacation time comes, we get out m to 28th

8 May. I am going out to Aunt Ella's in June, and I will pass through there, and I hope to see you and the whole family, William, the baby and all.

What do you all think of the war, up there? I am very patriotic now and am going to join the "Red Cross" chapter here and learn to make bandages and rob them. How are William and the baby? I am doing fine in school. Tell William that I am taking Spanish too, now and am wild about it, I am going to be in our next play, "The Moving House," I am an elf. Give my love to all and thanking you again for the lovely things, I remain, Yours lovingly,

Pete

P.S. Kiss the baby for me.

Pete
