

Baltimore
Sept 22nd 1939

My Dear Harry:-

A letter from
Rose Richardson, Sunday
told me the very sad
and sudden death of
your son William.
and this morning's mail
I received from you
"The Limestone Democrat".

with full account. I deeply feel for you, and to your wife, and all the family
I can sympathize greatly in this sorrow and bereavement, that has been a terrible shock to you.
May "our" Great Comforter comfort, sustain, and help you to bear this loss of your beloved son.

Cecilia & I are now
living in the city again.
have a small apartment
We have been with my only daughter Edyath & family in London. The County Seat of Maryland.

But her husband
Mr Donald Reitz was
sent to Camden N. J.
by the Government.
Their home is in Haddonfield N. J.
I have but one child
Robert B. who lives in Balt. James J. is in Connecticut, and
my youngest son -

William H. Ryan Gould
is with the Government as Trading Inspector for the Securities and Exchange Commission.

How much I would love to see you Harry.

I wrote you a
lengthy letter to
Jul. just after Christmas. but received

no answer - I see, by the paper received from her -
and which I appreciated her sending - She is still in New York - I will write her or ask her to come over and spend some weekend with Anne & Mrs

Many years have passed since your visit to Baltimore. A welcome awaits you, and am
hoping you will find me
this pleasure.

Accept with love, and
heart felt and deepest
sympathy -
Affe. yr. Cousin
Bessie Ryan Gould.
