

April 11, 1933.

Judge James E. Horton:

Why are you so sympathetic with these negro rapists? You did everything possible in your charge to the jury to get them off.

Anybody with a grain of sense knows that these New York nigger lovers (where white girls parade Broadway arm in arm with negroes) bribed this Ruby Bates to recant on her evidence at the first trial.

But these Jews and Communists got your goat.

Just because these poor white girls are "poor white trash" you are one of these aristocratic Southerners that thinks they are in the same class with niggers.

So you endorse the statement that has been circulated broadcast in magazines and newspapers THAT the mill girls of the South "supplement their meager earnings by prostitution on the side."

If that is true then in these days of the Great Depression maybe daughters of judges like you and daughters of busted bank presidents will be supplementing their livelihood by prostitution on the side.

What a vile reproach you are to the old time Southern manhood, catering and fawning as you did upon these Northern imported nigger-loving lawyers, telling the jury in your charge about the character of these girls.

How do you know about their character? Is it a crime for a destitute white girl looking for a job to don men's clothing and go looking for work.

These niggers have had three years of fat living in jail. The decent people of Alabama should take them out and give them the rope so that chicken-hearted judges like you could not hang garlands around their neck.

How about the little white schoolgirls

going along country paths to the rural schoolhouses

If you let these niggers off that is what they will be doing next, attacking some little white schoolgirl ten or 11 years old.

Do you not know that these ministers in New York who decked this girl Ruby Bates out in finery are so rotten that they preach social and marital intercourse of whites and blacks every Sunday in their hellish pulpits;

Why was Einstein so indignant at the idea of punishing these rotten niggers?

He was able to restrain his indignation when he read about two white girls ~~being~~ being raped by

NINE negroes repeatedly.

BUT as soon as it is proposed to punish the brutes, relatively EINSTEIN commences writing letters to ex-president Hoover about it---the lousy dirty Jew nigger lover.

Yours truly,

A CIVIL WAR VETERAN OF THE NORTH.
