

COMFORT

There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide and evening guest,
But joy shall come with early light.
For God hath marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And Heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all His children suffer here.

—Obituary—

* * * *

Mrs. Mae Willie Booker Malone, the daughter of the late Mr. Willie and Mrs. Annie Booker, was born January 21, 1907, in Limestone County, Alabama.

Mrs. Malone became a member of the Pine Grove Missionary Baptist Church, Harvest, Alabama, and later joined the Phillip Tabernacle Church. She remained a dedicated and faithful member until death.

She was united in marriage in 1941 to Mr. Henry S. Malone and to this union one child was born.

Mrs. Malone is survived by a devoted husband, Mr. Henry S. Malone; two sons, Mr. James Kelley, Madison, Alabama, and Pfc Jimmy Malone, San Antonio, Texas; one daughter, Mrs. Lucille Smith, Harvest, Alabama; two stepsons, Messrs. Archie and John Henry Malone, Detroit, Michigan; one stepdaughter, Mrs. Annie Mae Allen, Athens, Alabama; three sisters, Mrs. Margaret Davis and Mrs. Rosia Lee Hammond of Harvest, Alabama, and Miss Cora D. Booker, Huntsville, Alabama; six brothers, Messrs. Woodson, Walter, Tom, Robert and Will Booker of Harvest, Alabama, and Richard Booker, Cleveland, Ohio; nine grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

“WITH GOD”

She is visiting with the Angels,
Who have no burdens on their hearts.
Every day up there is Sunday,
It's a lovely vacation with God.
If she was asked to make a change;
And from Heaven to depart, She would say,
“I'm happy with Jesus on my vacation,
With God.

“Blessed are the dead who died in the Lord.”

“Life's battle fought—life's victory won.”
