Dear Mr. Harry:

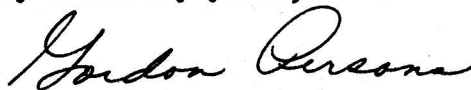

Your recent statement about "Persons for Governor" was deeply appreciated. Atticus Mullins picked up the story and ran part of it in "The Passing Throng."

My admirers for Governor are steadily increasing. They are now four in all; my Wife, my six year old Daughter, my twelve year old Son and yourself (and incidentally, I am not counting present company). Seriously, I do appreciate the nice things you said about me and I am wondering if you will be kind enough to send me about twenty-five copies of this issue of your paper. I have enough Brothers and close relatives who would be interested.

Kindest personal regards and thanks again for your help during the campaign. Clint and I are going to do the job.

Hope to see you sometime in the near future.

Very sincerely yours,

Gordon Persons
