Dearest Harry, Henry & Bob:-

What can I say to a family that is heart broken, no words of mine can be said that can fathom, of just how distressed I am for you "Three", and how grieved William's untimely passing has been to me, was always so fond of him, and so proud of his intellect, and what fine principles, and deep affection he had for his home and family.

My heart goes out to each one, and as always will never cease lifting up a prayer, in your behalf.

May God in his mysterious way in time heal the hearts of those who loved him, altho' far away ^{with you} are in spirit.

I phoned Mr. Lokey Sunday evening soon as Sarah talked to me, his wife came yesterday, and said to (Mr. Lokey) wept bitterly said he always felt he was one of his children. she spoke very beautifully, & said how devoted they were to William.

As soon as any of you feel the task is not too great, wish you would let me hear how you are.

A heart full of love & sympathy.

Eff. Jen.
