

Bennie Lee, John D., George, Ernest, Robert, Vera, Walter and E. J. Bending in front

Louis, Walter, E.J., Robert

Ernest and some grandchildren

Louis and Lillie Mae Malone

Homegoing Celebration

IN LOVING MEMORY

OF 1932 - 2007

Ernest (Buddy) Malone

Thursday, May 3, 2007
12:00 Noon

New Hopewell M. B. Church
Tanner, Alabama
Rev. Larry Lockett, Pastor
Officiant

Obituary of Ernest Malone

BIRTH/FAMILY

Ernest Malone was born September 4, 1932 to the late Rev. Louis (Tot) and Lillie Mae Cosby Malone. He had seven brothers, six of who has proceeded him in death; Robert, George, Walter, Louis, E.J. and John D. One sister, who proceeded him in death, Vera. He has one brother, Bennie who lives in Chicago, IL.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Ernest Malone confessed Christ and joined the New Hopewell M. B. Church, Tanner, AL on September 2, 1981.

VOCATION

Ernest Malone left Athens, Alabama early in life and moved to Chicago. He moved back home where he learned brick masonry and he also farmed. He later moved to Georgia where he started his own construction company, "Malone Construction Company," which he started in Marietta but later moved to Atlanta where it grew and thrived. He later moved back to Athens and stayed in the construction business. He retired from construction when his health failed. Ernest loved building. He built his house on Lindsay Lane in Athens, AL. He kept building and adding on to his house. It was his passion to keep building on as long as he could.

CHILDREN/RELATIVES

Calvin and Aaron (deceased). Dwendow, Ernest Jr., E. Shane, David, Jackie, Michael, and Daryl. Host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. One Brother Bennie (Joann) Malone; sister-in-laws: Sadie, Dorothy, Edna Pearl, Ida Mae, Johnnie, and Joanne. Step-sisters; Rossie, Zora, and Roberta. Step-brothers, Joe and Ed Malone. One aunt, Lavonia Sellers and a beloved cousin, Leslie White. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

DEATH

Ernest spent the last few years in the Sunbridge Nursing Home in Ardmore, AL. He was called to rest on April 28, 2007.

There's never a winter that will not end, never a tree too strong to bend. Never a sky too dull and gray, that it can't change to a better day."

This is a better day for Ernest (Buddy) Malone

The Order of Service

Processional

Song and Prayer
Deacon Billy Robinson

Scripture - Rev. Edward Cox

Selection - Choir

Acknowledgements
Sis. Mary Baker Washington

Words of Comfort - Rev. Leslie White
Hicks Tabernacle, Nashville, TN

Selection - Choir

Eulogy - Pastor Larry Lockett
New Hopewell M. B. Church

Solo - Bro. James Evans

Recessional

Flower Bearers - Nieces
Honorary Flower Bearer - Betty Peete
Pallbearers - Nephews

Interment - Polly Malone Cemetery

PEOPLE FUNERAL HOME, Directing

Grateful Appreciation - On behalf of the family, we express our gratitude for your acts of kindness evidenced in thoughts and deed. We are eternally grateful.