Obituary

Margaret Christine Malone was born in Athens, Ala. on May 6, 1934 to Jeff and Carrie Malone.

The Malone family included eight children of which she was the youngest. Margaret graduated from Athens Trinity High School and soon after married the love of her life, Luther ("Bud") Weaver, with whom she enjoyed 54 years of marriage. As newlyweds, Margaret & Bud moved to Detroit, MI and lived with Bud's sister and brother-in-law (Catherine and David Sanderfer) until they purchased their first of many homes. Margaret and the family lived in Detroit, Farmington Hills, Sumpter Township and Southfield, MI before returning to Athens, Alabama to enjoy a portion of their retirement. Missing their children, however, Margaret & Bud returned to Michigan and took up residence in the Ypsilanti Township area.

Margaret is survived by her loving husband Bud, her dear sister Louise, four children, Myrtice Shelton-Beatty, Luther ("Buster") Weaver, Aneta Carol Weaver, Tamara Rush, and her one and only granddaughter Erica ("Doni") Shelton. Additionally, Margaret leaves behind a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, her two sons-in-law, as well as many dear and trusted friends.

Margaret dedicated her life to successfully raising and caring for her family and assuring that all those around her were always made comfortable and were afforded the benefit of her attention.

Whether she was called "Marge" "Mom" "Ma 2" or "Aunt Margaret," she was well-loved and will be missed as she departed this life for a better one on Monday, January 5, 2009.
