Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but no too long
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we must all take
and we each must go alone
It's all a part of the master plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
go to the friend we know
Laugh at the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.*

The Obituary

SISTER LAURA YARBROUGH KING was born on April 14, 1930 to the union of the late Cleve and Cora Kennamore. She was united in holy matrimony to the late Charlie Yarbrough, who preceded her in death, to this union six sons and one daughter were born. She was later joined in holy matrimony to Mr. Edward King.

Laura confessed hope in Christ at an early age and joined the New Beria Missionary Baptist Church. Laura later accepted her call into the ministry and united with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints where she remained faithful until death.

She leaves to cherish her memory many a loving and devoted husband, Mr. Edward King, her children, Johnny (Yolanda) Yarbrough, Charlie Yarbrough, Jessie (Amanda) Yarbrough, Walter (Debbie) Yarbrough, Darrick (Patricia) Yarbrough and Geneva (Lawrence) Malone all of Athens, AL; James (Mattie) Yarbrough of Prospect, TN; two sisters: Elnora Bailey, Elkmont, AL, Dan Ella, Hampton, OH, thirty-six grandchildren, forty-two great-grandchildren, four sisters-in-law, three brothers-in-law. Special cousins, Kate Cannon and Lela Coleman of Athens, and a special friend, Shelia Beddingfield and host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
