Celebrating The Life of

Mrs. Minnie (Brown) Murphy

Sunday, May 2, 1999

Lakeview United Methodist Church
Tanner, Alabama

Reverend James Ayers, Pastor /Officiating

Obituary

Mrs. Minnie (Brown) Murphy was born in Limestone County, Alabama on May 25, 1920 to her parents, the late Mrs. Datie (Peoples) Brown and Mr. Richard Brown. She was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Sam Murphy who proceeded her in death.

She confessed hope in Christ at an early age, and joined the Lake View U.M. Church. She was a Stewardess of the church, and remained a faithful member until her health failed.

She departed this life on April 29, 1999 at Parkway Medical Center.

She leaves to cherish her memorys: two sons, Leo Brown of Athens, Alabama, James Brown of Detroit, Michigan; two grandchildren; one devoted special niece, Mrs. Gladys Miller of Athens, Alabama; a host of nieces, nephew, relatives, and friends.

There is an open gate at the end of the road

Through which each must go alone.

In the light we cannot see our Father claims his own.
