We Miss You

We remember the last day we saw your face as time has faded away. If we would have known it, we would've told you to stay please don't go because, we love you. But it seems to late, too soon Now we're saying We miss you. We know your looking down on us from Heaven. We know your sitting in the clouds above smiling with the Angels (from above). And WE'RE never going to let anyone take your place.

We Miss you!
