Marriage Bond.

Know all Men by These Presents, That we, Clyde Howell and Walter L. Brown are held and firmly bound unto the State of Alabama in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, lawful money of the United States, to the payment of which sum, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.
 The Condition of the above Obligation is such, That, whereas, a License to solemnize Marriage between: Clyde Howell and Shirley Ann Mays has this day been issued by the Judge of Probate of said County, at their request. Now, therefore, if there is no lawful cause why such Marriage should not be celebrated, then this obligation is to be void; otherwise it is to remain in full force.

 To Judge of Probate
 I have Floyd Hallis George
 coming out to see my son and miss him see
 on May 10 1947
 I remember when
 he says the books
 in my office don't show that I didn't turn them in
 The boy said he was trying to get some work
 and wanted me to get
 it
 I will say that I married
 this couple
 I guess he is straight
 about the date
 I will see what I can do when I get a chance to see
 you truly

Know all Men by These Presents, That we, Patrick Simmons and Claude Hargrove

are held and firmly bound unto the State of Alabama in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, lawful money of the United States, to the payment of which sum, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

The Condition of the above Obligation is such, That, whereas, a License to solemnize Marriage between:

Patrick Simmons and Maurine Cole

has this day been issued by the Judge of Probate of said County, at their request. Now, therefore, if there is no lawful cause why such Marriage should not be celebrated, then this obligation is to be void; otherwise it is to remain in full force.

Know all Men by These Presents, That we, Ralph M. Moore and Bertha Mae Pressnell are held and firmly bound unto the State of Alabama in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, lawful money of the United States, to the payment of which sum, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

The Condition of the above Obligation is such, That, whereas, a License to solemnize Marriage between: Ralph M. Moore and Bertha Mae Pressnell has this day been issued by the Judge of Probate of said County, at Agnew request. Now, therefore, if there is no lawful cause why such Marriage should not be celebrated, then this obligation is to be void; otherwise it is to remain in full force.

Marriage Bond.

Know all Men by These Presents, That we, W.H. Palmer and John Fox are held and firmly bound unto the State of Alabama in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, lawful money of the United States, to the payment of which sum, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.
 The Condition of the above Obligation is such, That, whereas, a License to solemnize Marriage between: W.H. Palmer and Eva Jane Brown has this day been issued by the Judge of Probate of said County, at their request. Now, therefore, if there is no lawful cause why such Marriage should not be celebrated, then this obligation is to be void; otherwise it is to remain in full force.

Marriage Bond.

Know all Men by These Presents, That we, Cordell Cope and Owen E. Ballard are held and firmly bound unto the State of Alabama in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, lawful money of the United States, to the payment of which sum, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.
The Condition of the above Obligation is such, That, whereas, a License to solemnize Marriage between: Cordell Cope and Margaret Bibb has this day been issued by the Judge of Probate of said County, at their request. Now, therefore, if there is no lawful cause why such Marriage should not be celebrated, then this obligation is to be void; otherwise it is to remain in full force.
