

THE AGE-HERALD,

E. W. BARRETT, EDITOR

CIRCULATION GREATER THAN ALL OTHER MORNING DAILIES IN ALABAMA COMBINED.

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 7th, 1902

Mr. R. H. Walker,
c/o The Press,
Meridian, Miss.

Dear Sir:--

Commencing with this date, we will pay you for Meridian correspondence on space rates. We do not care for anything from Meridian except important news, or matters relating to Birmingham or Alabama people.

Judging from the first copy of the Press, it is such a good paper that the Age-Herald cannot hope for any circulation of consequence in Meridian.

Yours very truly,

Editor.
