††† IN MEMORIAM †††

Mrs. Susie Williams was born on April 12, 1910 in Elkton, Tennessee to the late Watt and Liza Goode. She departed this life at 1:50 A.M. on June 1, 1983 while a patient in the Athens-Limestone Hospital.

She accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of the James Chapel Missionary Baptist Church where she remained a member until she went to the New Zion Missionary Baptist Church where her husband was Pastor.

She was a good mother, a loving wife and a real Christian Woman.

She leaves to cherish her memory, a husband, Rev. Johnnie Williams of Athens, Alabama; a son, William B. Harris, of Athens; daughters: Liza M. McBride of Denver, Colorado; Louise Jones of Mansfield, Ohio; Pearline Parker of Mansfield, Ohio; one sister, Mrs. Disse White, Denver, Colorado; nine grandchildren; eleven great grandchildren; and many other relatives, friends, and neighbors.

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, thou I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord, forever."

- Psalms 23.
