He was a disabled World War Two veteran who served in the United States Army from 1942-1946. For fun and enjoyment he played on a local baseball team called the Athens Braves. His position on the team was pitcher. For 22 years or more his occupation was truck driving for different local companies.

He was married in 1947 to Mrs. Mamie Beverly Mills who preceded him in death in 1965. He was remarried in 1970 to Miss Fannie Bell.
