

Pall Bearers

Friends of the Family

Flower Bearers

Nieces and Great-Nieces

— Interment -

Legg Cemetery

Funeral Services
of
Mrs. Donna M. Harris

Sunday, March 31, 1985
at 1:30 P.M.

Sweet Home Missionary Baptist Church
Athens, Alabama

Reverend Thomas Sanderfer, Jr., Pastor

Obituary

Mrs. Donna Mae Harris was born March 6, 1915 in Limestone County to the late Carl and Gertrude Matthews.

Mrs. Harris professed hope in Christ as a young woman and joined the Sweet Home Missionary Baptist Church and remained a member until death.

She was married to the late Mr. Maxie Harris.

Mrs. Donna Harris departed this life, Monday, March 25, 1985 at the Athens Limestone Hospital.

She leaves to mourn her passing, one son, Mr. Garnell Canamore-Harris, Athens, AL; two granddaughters, Cynthia A. and Melissa D. Harris, Cleveland, OH; one daughter-in-law, Mrs. Annie P. Harris, Cleveland, OH; one sister, Mrs. Willie L. Murray, Athens; one brother-in-law, Leroy Murray of Athens, two nieces, Miss Ludia Mitchell of Huntsville, AL and Miss Arlene Grooms of Athens; two nephews, Carl Battles of Athens, and Rufus Matthews, Jr. of Rockford, IL; a host of great nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Program

PROCESSIONAL

SELECTION Choir

SONG AND PRAYER Rev. Charlie King

SCRIPTURE Appointee

REMARKS Deacon Aubrey Horton

SELECTION Choir

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS Mrs. Mildred Turner

OBITUARY To be read silently

EULOGY Rev. Thomas Sanderfer, Jr.

SOLO Ollye F. Ward

VIEWING OF THE REMAINS

RECESSIONAL