Obituary

Mrs. Razzie Lee Mason was born March 12, 1929, to the late Mr. Eddie Mason and the late Ms. Beulah White. She departed this life on March 26, 2004, at her home after a long illness. She was the youngest of three siblings, Mr. Robert Wilbur and Mr. Gilbert Mason, who preceded her in death.

Sister Mason accepted Christ as her savior at an early age and joined Pleasant Grove C.P.C.A. in Athens under the Pastorate of Rev. Surry Mitchell in August 1941. Sister Mason served as an Usher for many years. She was a dedicated Usher, never missing her scheduled time to Usher until her health began to fell.

Ms. Mason was affectionately known as "Raz". She was employed by Sweet Sue, which is known today as Sara Lee, for 25 years and retired in 1994. Raz was a hard worker and believed in earning a decent living. She taught her children the importance of working. She was friendly and met everyone with a smile. Raz did not meet a stranger.

Raz leaves to cherish sweet memories to two devoted daughters: Delores (Lorenzo) Murrah of Louisville, KY and Shirley Faye (Lawrence) Moore of Athens, AL. She called her two sons-in-laws hers sons. Three grandchildren: LaShunder Michelle (Faha) Anthony of Louisville, KY, Netausha Moore of Athens, AL and Kendrick Murrah of Louisville, KY. One God Sister: Febbie (David) Lane of Athens, AL. One Sister-in-law, Sarah Mason of Harvey, IL. Two God Children: Jannifer (Gary) Matthews of Athens, AL and Timothy (D'Angela) Lane of Decatur, AL. A special cousin, Jessie Mayberry, Sr. of Athens, AL. Five God-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, friends, and a special devoted friend of the family, Louie Stoudmire of Huntsville, Alabama.

Sweet Rest

God saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb. He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered, "Peace be Thine." The weary hours. the days of pain. the sleepless nights have passed away. The every patient. worn out frame has found sweet rest at last.
