Precious Memories

Prophetess Tracy Delane Robinson

Tracy Delane Robinson was born to William Lee and Ada Mae Robinson on April 19, 1967 in Morgan County, Alabama. Although she did not have children, she nurtured her two nieces, Kalynn and Jayah as though they were her own.

Tracy was an elite woman of God whose smile could light up any room. She was a faithful servant, one who dedicated her life to teaching others how to walk in Christ simply by leading by example. Her caring nature, and often tough love, was felt by many and will be missed by all. She was, is and will always live in the many hearts she touched.

Tracy loved her church. She was active in many areas of ministry including, but not limited to Intercessory Prayer Warrior Team, Youth New Believers Teacher, Joshua Ministries, Altar Worker Ministry, Christian Education Teacher, Children's Church Leader, and Diakona MIT (Ministers in Training). Tracy graduated from Drake Technical College in the late 1980s with a certificate in Cosmetology. She touched the lives of many while doing what she loved best. She always found the time to spread the Word.

Tracy was preceded in death by her brother, Cedric Lee Robinson and sister, Doris Jean Robinson. Loving memories of Tracy will always be cherished by her mother, Ada Mae Robinson of Huntsville, Alabama; her father, William Lee (Winnie) Robinson of Athens, Alabama; one sister, Tonya (Reginald) Sales of Huntsville, Alabama; four brothers, Patrick (Katrina) Harris of Madison, Alabama, Darrius Robinson of Atlanta, Georgia, Kendall (Samantha) Shoulders of Athens, Alabama, and Marcus Shoulders of Birmingham, Alabama; five aunts, Deborah (Mike) Wood of Athens, Alabama, Paulette Davis of Athens, Alabama, Annie Taylor, Bertha (George) Walker and Betty Gullette all of Dayton, Ohio; eight uncles, Eric (Fannie) Peeples of Madison, Alabama, Donald Davis of Harvest, Alabama, Kerry (Pearl) Davis of Town Creek, Alabama, U.L. Davis of Athens, Alabama, David (Annie) Robinson, Ezell Robinson, Donnell (Barbara) Robinson and Leo (Donna) Robinson all of Huntsville, Alabama; nieces, Kalynn, Jayah, McKenzie, and Kennedy; nephews, Cameron and Caleb; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tracy ran the race, fought the good fight, and claimed the Ultimate Victory.

She won... Yes she won the ultimate prize, a seat next to her Father, Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

"May the Works She Done Speak for Her..."

Obituary

Welcome Home

When I am gone, release me let me go...
 I have so many things to see and do.
 You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
 Be happy that we had so many years.
 I gave you my love. You can only guess how much you gave me in happiness.
 I thank you for the love you each have shown,
 but now it's time I traveled alone.
 So grieve, a while for me if you must.
 Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
 It's only for awhile that we must part.
 So bless the memories within you heart.
 I won't be far away, for life goes on.
 So if you need me, call, and I will come.
 Though you can't see, I'll be near and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear my love around you soft and clear.
 And then, when you must come this way alone,
 I'll greet you a smile saying, "Welcome Home!"

LIVE, LAUGH, LOVE
Families are Forever

Precious Memories...

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
 I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
 I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
 Of happy times and bright sunny days.
 I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun
 Of happy memories that I leave when life is done...
