Obituary

Mother Maggie Lee Holman departed this life October 23, 2005, at her home in Tanner, Alabama. She was born July 7, 1924, in Limestone County, to the late Charlie Burns and Lee Bell Sole.

Mother Holman confessed hope in Christ in the year of 1964 and joined St. Andrew Primitive Baptist Church. In 1967, she was appointed to the Mother's Board by the late Pastor W. M. Holman, her brother-in-law.

Mrs. Maggie Lee Holman worked on the military installation at Redstone Arsenal, Alabama for many years. As time passed her by, working as a housekeeper, Mother Holman made the decision to better raise her children and be a grandmother, she retired from all outside work and became a full time housewife and mother.

At the age of ten, she was one of the first to carry bricks, which built the original St. Andrew Primitive Baptist Church. Little did she realize, that she was to become a member of that church and the last of the original Mother's to serve on the Mother's Board. In her younger years, she held the position of treasurer of the Mother's Board and was a delegate for St. Andrew Primitive Baptist Church to both the Women's Congress and the Church School and B.T.U. Congress of the Indian Creek Primitive Baptist Association.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Deacon Walker Holman; three daughters: Anna Jean Holman, Classie Mae Holman, and Lucille Holman; one son, Anderson (Frog) Holman; two brothers: Charlie Ed and Johnny Burns; and her stepmother, Rocie Burns.

She leaves to cherish her memories five daughters: Romelia (Minnie) Walker of Decatur, AL, Louise (George) Moore of Jonesboro, GA, Bertha D. (Rickey) Goodloe of Athens, AL, Ollie Lee Parham of Huntsville, AL, and Patricia A. Love of Tanner, AL; four sons: Norman (Timmie) Holman of Huntsville, AL, Charlie L. (Kathy) Holman of Athens, Alabama, Gregory C. (Sherill) Holman of Huntsville, AL and Randy T. Holman of Tanner, AL; fifty-nine grandchildren, seventy-two great grandchildren and a host of great great grandchildren, nephews, nieces, and cousins.
