Obituary

 N FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1994 GRACE ODELL BEAVERS departed this life in the Athens-Limestone Hospital. Her sweet spirit entered into the care of our Creator into a home not built with hands, but whose maker and builder is God.

Grace Beavers was born to the late Annie Mae Horton Turner and Theodore Baugh in Decatur, Alabama on November 12, 1939.

She attended public schools in Athens, Alabama and graduated from Trinity High School in 1957. In later years she attended Talladega School for the Blind in Chattanooga, Tennessee and graduated in 1964.

She confessed hope in Christ at an early age and joined the Sweet Home Missionary Baptist Church. She later moved her membership to the St. Mark Primitive Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Joe Baker, and remained a faithful member until death.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving family: one daughter, Sharon Beaver of Athens; five sons, Ricky Beavers (Donna) of Ashville, North Carolina; Randall Beavers of Ashville, North Carolina; Reginald Beavers (Samantha), Michael Beavers and Marlon Beavers, all of Athens; one sister, Gloria Turner of Athens; nine brothers, Hubert Turner (Mary), Lewis Turner (Carolyn), Wyman Turner (Odell), Rev. Little Walter Turner, Ervin Turner (Gwendolyn), Freddie Turner (Beverly), and Toney Turner, all of Athens; Gregory Turner (Carmen) of Nashville, Tennessee and Timmy Turner (Angela) of Clute, Texas; her grandmother, Gertrude Raybon of Athens; eight grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*God saw the rugged highway
Getting mighty hard to climb;
So He closed the weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace Divine."
The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease;
And life's long warfare closed at last,
Her soul is found in peace.*
