

LIMESTONE DEMOCRAT

R. H. WALKER, PUBLISHER

LIMESTONE'S FAVORITE NEWSPAPER
HIGH CLASS BOOK AND JOB PRINTING

ATHENS, ALABAMA Feb. 6, 1934.

State of Alabama,
Limestone County.

This agreement between R. H. Walker, acting for himself, J. B. Sarver and Nute Hatchett, and W. G. Balch witnesseth: That said Walker has sold to said Balch 160 acres of the old John Moore (Luther Glaze) place on the north side of the Nick Davis road, about 10 miles east of Athens, Ala., for the sum of $3,850. Balch agrees to assume a mortgage on said land now held by the First Joint Stock Land Bank of Montgomery, Ala., and pay the difference to L. C. Hightower who is to accept same in satisfaction of the balance due him on a second mortgage on the Moore place in the principal sum of $3,000. Deed is to be executed as quickly as possible.

R. H. Walker
For himself, J. B. Sarver & Nute Hatchett
W. G. Balch