OBITUARY

There is a reaper whose name is death,
And with his sickle keen,
He reaps whom he will at a breath
He comes but cannot be seen.

Mrs. Ada Lee McWilliam was born in Limestone County, Alabama February 25, 1900 and departed this life March 29, 1964 at the Athens Limestone Hospital. She was the only daughter of Mrs. Booker Horton and the late Mr. Aaron Horton.

She lived a peaceful and useful life, and was always ready and willing to help anyone in any way she could. She married Mr. Jack McWilliam and helped to rear his two daughters. But regardless of our vocation in life, when our appointed time comes we must go and we who are left behind have only to do the biddings of Christ.

She leaves to mourn her passing, a devoted husband, Mr. Jack McWilliam; mother Mrs. Booker Horton; two step-daughters, Mrs. Rossie Herd of Athens and Mrs. Tular Mae Washington of Louisville Kentucky; four step grandchildren; four step great grandchildren; two uncles, Mr. Albert Townsend and Mr. Andrew Townsend of Athens; two sons-in-law Mr. Willie Herd of Athens and Mr. Earl Washington of Louisville Kentucky. And a host of relatives and friends.

Our heavenly father knows our sadness
And to all our friends He will give relief
Jesus knows our sorrow, He knows our pain;
He will be our comfort,
He will be with us all the way.
