My very dear Sister:-

Your Card bearing the sweet message, that you would be here Tuesday afternoon.
At 4 o'clock gave me a thrill of delight, for it seems such a long, long time since you left us.
And I will say right here, that the "latch string" of my home will always yield to your touch and will gladly welcome you home again, for I feel your presence is ever a benediction and it makes me happy to know that you wish to come. and be with me. I telephoned M.

W- the good news of your coming and she said she would meet you at the train. Robert Henry said I certainly will be glad when Mamma comes. I expect you will meet with Laura Norton on the train, as her mother told ^{me} yesterday she was looking for her Tuesday. Laura Chandler came last Tuesday & isn't look very well, has had sore throat for several weeks.

I am glad you sent me Lelia's letter to read. We enjoyed it very much.
She is a wonderful woman, it certainly would be a grand trip for me if I could go, but I am afraid I am not high up in Church work for them to let me attend, but I thank you very much for the thought any way. I wish to thank you for your lovely letter and I intended to answer it right away but concluded to wait and write after the D. A. R. meeting with Mrs. Hagan but alas! the meeting hasn't been last Tuesday was so cold Mrs. was afraid she couldn't make the ladies comfortable, next Tuesday was the day yet - and she called Memory Peck last night & said she couldn't have it on account of the marriage of Margaret Smith and Mr. Lyons, for the two Memoirs I think are so disquieted told Mrs. just anytime she concluded to hold the meeting just let them know - I had a card from Ann Leslie a few days ago (you knew she and Memory were at the John Keptinis) from the way Ann writes I do not think M. is improving any said the doctors were still giving her leeches & could not tell yet what was her trouble or how she would have to be there - Anne Peck wrote her mother she would ever to see them and that Memory looks so bad - I am so sorry for her, she is trying so hard to get well and is always so bright & cheerful Give my love to Thomas & Sue and to Ruth I know they have been so kind and affectionate and will hate to see you leave - Memory Peckles sends you her love is entertaining two of her young men friends members of the church in the country Mary Lee was here this morning - Will look for you Tuesday and Memory (Mattha) and myself will be so glad to have at home again Yours Affectionately

Anne P
