Obituary

Sarah Kirby Fowler was born on November 30, 1915 in Ardmore, TN to the late Henderson and Helen Stinnett. She peacefully departed life on Tuesday, October 7, 2008.

She was saved at an early age and later joined the Pleasant Grove family where she remained a faithful member.

She was married to Frank Kirby in which eight beautiful children were born. She later united with George Fowler, Sr., who she spent the latter part of her life. This union included four more wonderful children. Two brothers, Ruben Stinnett and William Stinnett, Sr; one son, Thomas Kirby; and stepson, Cecil Fowler, all preceded her in death.

Her memories will be cherished by her loving family: seven children, Arthur (Marie) Kirby, Helen Kirby, William (Leola) Kirby, James (Dorothy) Kirby, Carolyn (Frank) McLin, all of Athens, AL; Rosie (Eugene) Carthern, Huntsville, AL and Annie (John) Moore, Decatur, AL; five stepchildren, Nancie Singletary, Grand Praire, TX, George (Linda) Fowler, Theresa Fowler, Sheila Fowler, all of Flint, MI and Valerie Fowler of Hazel Green, AL; five sister-in-laws, Odell Stinnett, Springfield, OH, Emma Johnson and Lucretia Binford, both of Cincinnati, OH, Lottie Robinson and Alberta Kirby, both of Athens, AL; 29 grandchildren, 56 great-grandchildren, 35 great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, including two devoted friends, Mamie Harris and Elise Mitchell, both of Athens, AL.

Sarah touched many throughout her life. She was known for her cooking. She always cooked three meals a day and opened her home to everyone. She had a passion for sewing, gardening and quilting. Her loving spirit will never be forgotten.

Our Strength

*Grandma, we thank you for the strength that you have instilled in us.
The love you have shown us and the faith that has guided us.
In you we have seen a strength that is wonderful thru sickness and health.
You are one of a kind and there will never be another like you.*

Mother

*Sent from God, she was a woman of honor
She was our potter from Heaven to help watch over us,
And mold and shape us into the people that we are today.
She was our angel. She was our hero. She was our backbone.*

She was our inspiration her on Earth,

During the times we needed to be inspired.

She was our courage when we needed to be encouraged.

She was our comfort when we needed comforting.

She was our Mrs. Sarah.

May her soul rest in peace and we will love her forever more.

We Love You, Momma
