OBITUARY

Mary Arlene Maples was born July 5, 1931 to the late Lester and Lenora Stinnett. She accepted Christ as her savior at an early age and became a faithful member of Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church until she was unable to attend due to health reasons. Mother Mary served on the Mother's Board and was the Church Clerk for many years. She was President of the Senior Missionary Society and a member of the Usher Board. She was educated in Limestone County public schools and did domestic work. Mrs. Maples was a school bus driver, homemaker, hair dresser and she later gained employment at ConAgra Poultry, where she remained until retirement. On July 5, 2012, Mrs. Maples and her husband, Hose C. celebrated 65 years of marriage. To this marital union, five children were born. Mary gained the love and trust of family, church members, co-workers, friends and others. She will truly be missed in her home and community.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: her husband, Hose C. Maples; her children, Mary Jane (Thomas) Hammer, O. D. Maples, Myrtle Caudle, Joe (Angela) Maples, and Melinda (Kaiser) Leslie, Jr.; Grandchildren, Shana Durain, Brea Garth, Maria Maples, Galen Christopher, Jeffrey (Noreen) Caudle, Joe Andrew Maples, and Chino Bolar; one sister, Della Maples; two brothers, LeRoy Stinnett and John (Glendon) Stinnett; special friends she loved as a daughter and granddaughter, Florence and LaToya Lewis-Coker; one uncle, Raymond Phelps; four sister-in-laws, Cora Lee Dement, Annaliza Coleman of Indianapolis, IN, Mealie Hunter, and Birdie Mae (Fred) Murray; nieces, nephews, cousins, church members, neighbors and friends.
