The Obituary

Annie Frances Fletcher Horton, the second of ten children, was born November 17, 1934 in Athens, Alabama into the union of the late Alex Fletcher and Cordie Lockhart Fletcher.

She touched the hearts of the many who knew her as a mother, family member, friend, neighbor, co-worker, and church member.

She accepted Christ at an early age and joined the Sampson Chapel Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. After a merger of congregations, she became a member of Frazier Chapel Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, where she served faithfully as a Stewardess, Church Treasurer and choir member.

She was preceded in death by her eldest son, Gregory Lee Horton, and two brothers--Henry Murrah and Willie Murrah.

She leaves six children to celebrate her life and cherish her memories: Frances Benford; Michael (Arlene) Horton; Timothy (Wanda) Horton; and Lorinda Horton – who all reside in Athens, AL.; Bernadette (Michael) Gray in Memphis, TN; and Sharon (Darryl) Ward in Birmingham, AL. She is also survived by six brothers and one sister: Lafayette (JoAnn) McDonald and Lorenzo (Delores) Murrah of Louisville, KY; George (Dorothy) Murrah, James Murrah, Emanuel Murrah, Carl (Janet) Murrah, and Elaine Noble, all of Athens. Thirteen grandchildren, including Tory Benford, her beloved caregiver, fourteen great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews will also fondly remember her.
