The Obituary

Mrs. Booker Horton, daughter of the late Mr. Mose Horton and Mrs. Tempie Horton, was born in Limestone County, Alabama, March 6, 1881. She departed this life on June 22, 1968, in Athens-Limestone Hospital, Athens, Alabama.

She grew up in the Vaughn's Hollow Community, near Elkmont, Alabama. She was an active member of the St. Mark Primitive Baptist Church, and maintained a constant, vigilant, cooperative and prayerful interest in all the activities of the Church. Her home was one of laughter, love, and orderliness. She was given to much hospitality, and continuously ministered to the needs of all who knew her and needed her help.

She was united in marriage to Mr. Aaron Horton, and to this union two children were born--all of whom preceded her in death. She was also married to Mr. Nelson Horton, who preceded her in death. She was a devoted wife and mother.

Survivors include, a great nephew, whom she raised and with whom she lived--Mr. Frank White, and his wife, Mrs. Mabel White; and their four children of Levert Avenue, Athens, Alabama; two brothers, Messrs. Albert and Andrew Townsend of Athens, Alabama; four nieces--Mrs. Jettie Lee Parham, Nashville, Tennessee, Mrs. Lena M. Garrett, Louisville, Kentucky, Mrs. Parie Lee Murray and Mrs. Lillie Murray, Athens, Alabama, and Mrs. Albirda Martin, Pacific Groves, California; five nephews, Mr. Bob Ross Horton, Rockford, Illinois, Messrs. Leon, Eligah, Mason, and D. J. Townsend, of Athens, Alabama; one son-in-law, Mr. Jack McWilliam, Athens, Alabama; and a host of great nieces, great nephews, other relatives and friends.
