Obituary

Paul Byron Garrett was born March 19, 1962 in Pulaski, TN. He departed this life April 28, 2009 in Pulaski, TN. He was preceded in death by his father, Simon Reed Garrett; sister, Mary Will Garrett Primm; and brother, Charles Young. He accepted Christ at an early age and began his Christian journey at Ebenezer Baptist Church. Paul married Sharon D. Braden in February 1986 and to this union two children were born.

Paul was very active within the church and community in Giles County. He was lead guitar player for Temple of Praise Church and he also sang in the Men of Praise Choir. He loved gospel music and played the guitar in his spare time. Paul also loved sports. He was a member of the T.O.P. Men's Softball Team. He coached softball, baseball, basketball for his son and daughter in leagues in Giles County. Paul created and coached the Lady Warriors AAU Basketball Team for over 10 years. His hobbies included sports, fishing, hunting, playing the guitar and spending time with his wife, children and granddaughters. One of Paul's special talents was entertaining others. He had a great sense of humor and was the lead character "Elmo" in the church play, "The Hambones".

He was employed with the Giles County Board of Education for 12 years and the Pulaski Post Office for 11 years. He also was employed as a Landscaper for 15 years. Paul loved his job as a bus driver and was loved by all the youth he encountered. He was a dedicated employee, never wanting to miss a day of work.

Paul is survived by his loving and faithful wife, Sharon Garrett; son, Emmanuel Garrett; daughter, Hope Garrett; mother, Mattie Garrett; sister, Mamie (Steve) Gray; brothers, Bishop Stanley (Jackie) Garrett; Ralph (Tonja) Garrett; Wade (Ann) Garrett; Reed Garrett, Jr. A host of Uncles, Aunts, Cousins, Nieces, Nephews, and Friends. A special friend to the family, Kirsten Gardner.
